

Glossary

Detailed explanation

Coordination phase 2

Coordination phase 2

In coordination phase 2 offers and admissions are made in three steps. This is done by means of the ranking lists and priorities.

Each applicant receives at the most one offer. In the first two admission steps an applicant receives an admission when he/she accepts an offer or the offer is for the course with highest priority. In the third admission step each offer is at the same time an admission.

Back to last page

