

Glossary

Detailed explanation

Offer

Offer

An offer from the higher education institution gives the applicant the option of receiving an admission to a chosen course of study.

The applicant can either accept the offer or wait and see whether he/she receives offers for chosen courses further up the priority list. In case the applicant accepts an offer, he/she receives an admission and withdraws from the procedure regarding any other applications.

Back to last page

